PRESS NOTE.

Nominations for Elections to Legislative Councils.

Nominations for elections to Legislative Councils would e facilitated if prospective candidates bear the following oints in mind.

1. Constituency to be mentioned in entries 7 and 8 of the omination paper.—Under Section 6 (1) of the Representa-on of the People Act, 1951, a person, in order to be ualified to fill a seat in the Legislative Council of a State, as to be an elector for any Assembly Constituency in that tate, and the law does not require that he should be a oter for any Council Constituency. It therefore follows iat entries 7 and 8 in the nomination paper of a Council andidate have to be filled with reference to the Assembly onstituency and the roll thereof in which such candidate's ame is registered.

2. Entries 1, 10 and 14.—In entry 1, of the nomina-ion paper, however the name of the particular Council onstituency in which the candidate is seeking election nust of course be given. Similarly in entries 10 and 14 elating to the proposer and seconder also, the serial numbers re to be given with reference to the particular Council onstituency electoral roll where the proposer's and econder's names are registered. Under the law the roposer and seconder of a candidate will have to be ersons who are registered as voters in the same Council onstituency from which that candidate is seeking election.

3. Verification.—A Returning Officer has to be satisfied hat a candidate seeking election to a Council seat in a State is an elector for an Assembly constituency in that State. It would therefore be safer for a candidate even efore he files his nomination paper to keep ready with him either a copy of the electoral roll in which his name is included or a certified copy of the relevant entries of such roll.

4. Date of Election.—The month and the year in which the notification for the election has been issued should be given on the top of the form.

5. Specification of Election Agent.—Even when a candidate appoints himself as an election agent, he should specify his name in the form relating to the appointment of electionagent:—
